Approximately 2300 people responded to the survey.
Survey Insights

Most Common Positive Sentiments:

Wide variety of artistic styles and time periods.
Clear and well-organized theme.
The docents and video at the end contributed greatly to the experience.

Overall, the exhibition was very well-received by survey respondents.

What did you like about the exhibition?

“I liked the span of styles developed over the years. I enjoyed the video featuring the paintings of Venice, we returned to look again at the works!”

“An absolutely majestic collection including many pieces I had never seen or read about (e.g. the Klimt Birch Trees).”

“Very inspiring. Beautiful set-up and display really helps show off art.”

“I love the way the paintings were grouped according to different locales and painted by different artists.”

“The cohesive theme of landscape paintings and the variety of perspectives.”
Survey Insights

Most Common Negative Sentiments:

Large crowds, especially near end of exhibition.
Wall label fonts too small to read.
Lack of audio guide.

The majority of respondents said there was nothing they disliked about the exhibition. Almost all complaints were about the crowds and difficulty of reading labels (especially with the large crowds).

What did you dislike about the exhibition?

“Wish the write-ups about the works and/or artist were in bigger font so people don’t have to hover so much to read them.”

“Small print on wall labels was hard to read without getting up close, which was problematic in crowded rooms.”

“Crowded! I would not have minded waiting to get in.”

“I would have liked more information in an audio tour.”
