

What it's like for

Janet & Touger -

To Live in America!

By: Janet Xiong & Touger Vang

HOME COMING

We have a school event called "homecoming." It is made up of smaller events and is held at the beginning of each school year to celebrate students coming back to school for a new year of learning. The "pep fest" is one of the smaller events. Students perform team dances, chant cheers, and play games to encourage school spirit!

4th of July

- 4th of July is when Americans celebrate their independence by setting off firecrackers
- The picture to the left is when my family celebrated the 4th of July in our front yard and the picture to the right is when I was 10 years old and went to see a firecracker show to celebrate 4th of July
- The 4th of July is celebrated by the United States and some other countries

Minnesota State Fair!

Every summer, most states host a fair where anyone can go to play games, enjoy rides, try weird food, listen to live music and more! Minnesota has one of the largest and best state fairs in the country!

We are best known for our food...which includes:

Turkey leg

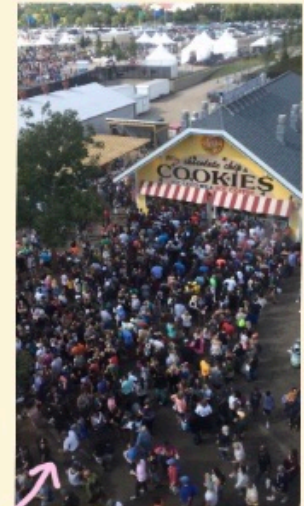

Cheese curds

12-inch-long hot dogs

There is so much more, but our most popular food are the Sweet Martha's chocolate chip cookies! You can get about 50 fresh baked cookies for $17. The lines are so long, but it is definitely worth the wait. Every year, Sweet Martha's is able to make $3-4 million just from these cookies!

extremely long lines!

burgers

burgers is a popular food in America

a burger is made up with and bun, meat grind and made into a patty, tomato, cheese, lettuce, and any sauce you want

I remember the first time I ate a burger, I was 4 years old we was having a party for my brother. I remember my first bite it was a life life changing moment. I remember how juicy the patty was and the lettuce crunchy, it was amazing.

PIC•COLLAGE

♡cheeseburgers♡

I agree with Touger! Burgers are an American classic! This picture was taken when I tried the famous fast food chain,
In-N-Out, in California!

Halloween

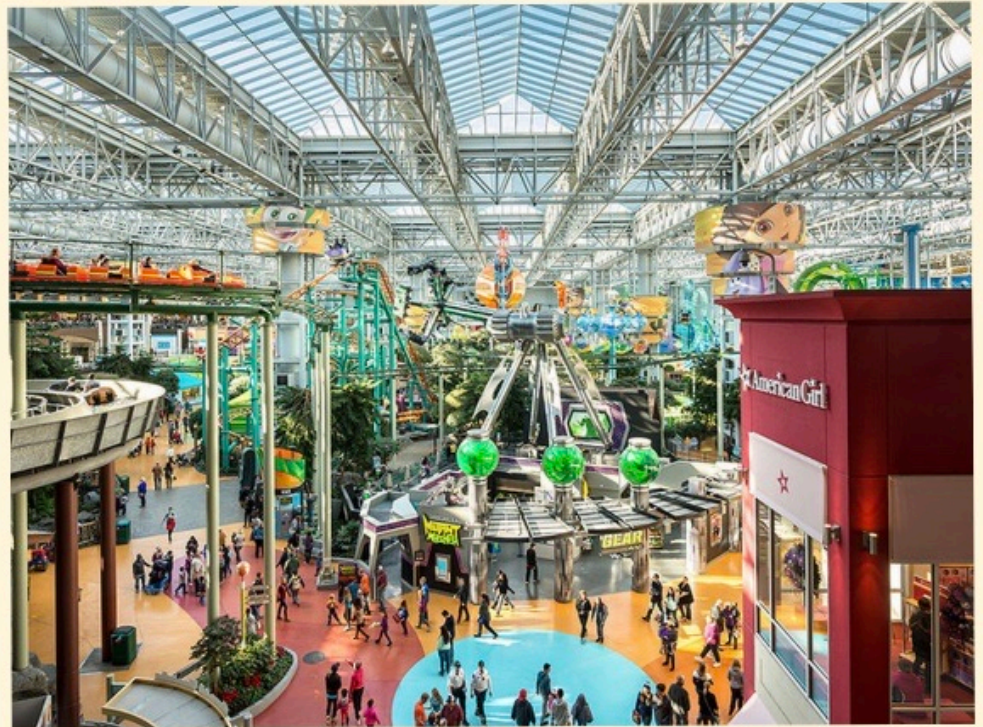

. This picture was taken when I was in 5th grade, I was the red ninja

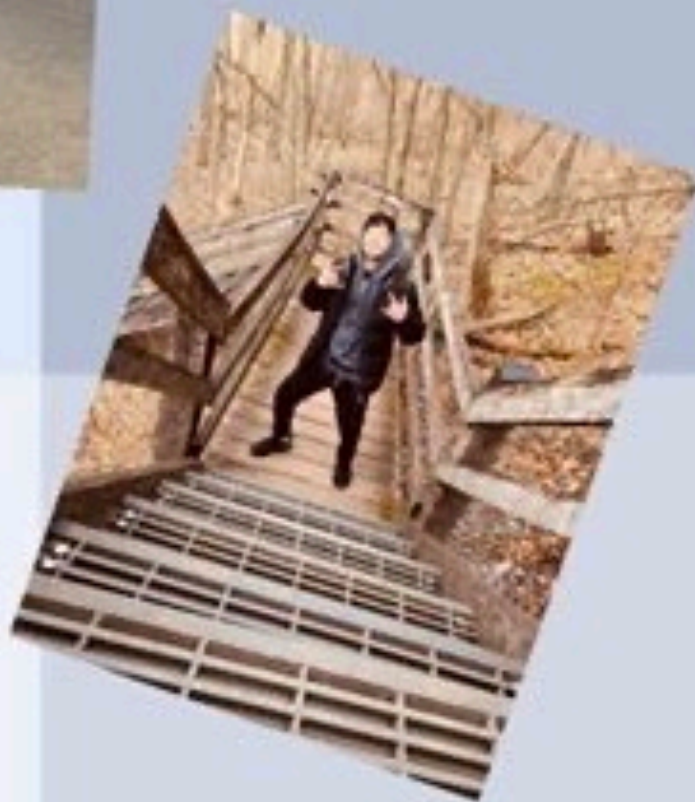

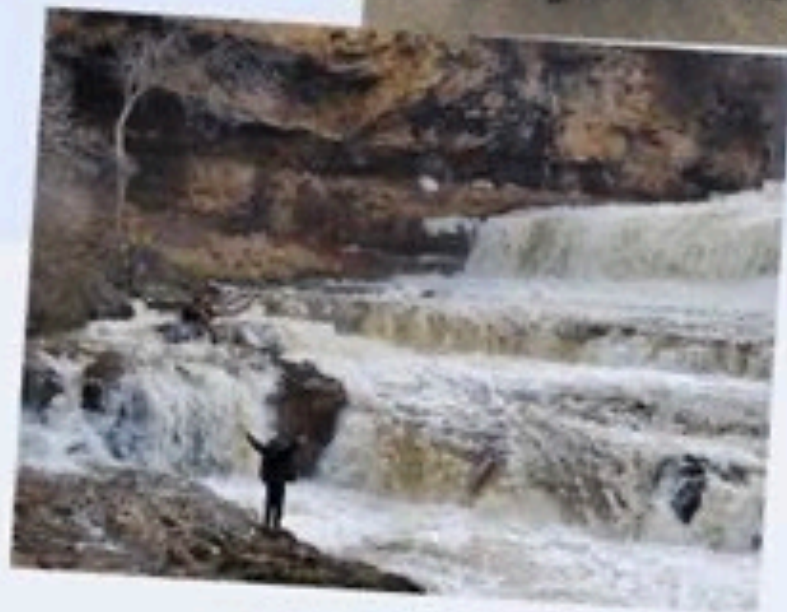

.This event is call Halloween and it's celebrate by a lot of countries and have different meanings. The event is celebrate by wearing costumes and going to door to door for candy by saying "trick or treat"

I remember this night because that night I got a lots of candy. It was dark and windy and super cold. I remember going from door to door and people would say " Oh my, what a costume, now are you a ninja?" I would always reply with a yes and receive bunch of candy for my costume.

THE MALL OF AMERICA

Minnesota is home to the largest mall in the United States and it is called the Mall of America! There are over 520 shops and 50 restaurants to explore. Inside the mall, there is also the largest indoor amusement park in America as well. It is known as Nickelodeon Universe. Some other things the mall has are a movie theater, hotel, and an outdoor ice skating rink for the winter!

We had to hike to the waterfall but the thing is the path to the waterfall was slippery so it was dangerous and slippery!
really fun and beautiful only something that nature can give.

There are so many more beautiful waterfall, I wish you can come with me to see!

Lastly, to live in America means everyone panics and buys in bulk when there is a pandemic.

He Has 17,700 Bottles of Hand Sanitizer and Nowhere to Sell Them

Amazon cracked down on coronavirus price gouging. Now, while the rest of the world searches, some sellers are holding stockpiles of sanitizer and masks.