

Who Am I?

Using Art to Develop a Character

An interesting story always has a strong character—someone who is intriguing, intelligent, humorous, or captivating. Select a portrait in the gallery to use as your main character for a story. Carefully examine the painting to determine qualities of the character, and fill in each box below.

Portrait sketch:

Title:

Artist:

Body language:

Facial expression:

Clothing:

Setting:

Physical features:

Put It All Together!

Write a description of this character. What kind of person is the character? What is the character's life like?

What type of story would this character be involved in? Why
