

MEDIA ALERT

Minneapolis Institute of Art to Close November 21, Following New Covid-19 Restrictions

MINNEAPOLIS—November 18, 2020— The Minneapolis Institute of Art (Mia) will temporarily close to the public starting Saturday, November 21, following new Covid-19 restrictions issued by Minnesota Governor Tim Walz.

“The health and well-being of Mia visitors and staff is our utmost priority, and we are committed to doing our part to protect our community,” said Katie Luber, Nivin and Duncan MacMillan Director and President at Mia.

Mia will continue to offer digital content, including “Foot in the Door 5: The Virtual Exhibition,” The Object podcast, and the Arts of Asia learning resource for students. In addition, all previously scheduled virtual events and programming will take place as planned.

Mia does not anticipate reopening prior to January 2, 2021. Updates to the exhibition calendar will be noted on Mia’s website at artsmia.org.

Minneapolis Institute of Art
2400 Third Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55404
artsmia.org

Press Contacts

Michaela Baltasar-Feyen

+1 612 870 3280

mbaltasar-feyen@artsmia.org

Evan Gruenes

+1 612 870 6364

egruenes@artsmia.org

About the Minneapolis Institute of Art

Home to more than 90,000 works of art representing 5,000 years of world history, the Minneapolis Institute of Art (Mia) inspires wonder, spurs creativity, and nourishes the imagination. With extraordinary exhibitions and one of the finest art collections in the country—from all corners of the globe, and from ancient to contemporary—Mia links the past to the present, enables global conversations, and offers an exceptional setting for inspiration.

General admission to Mia is always free. Some special exhibitions have a nominal admission fee.

For more information, call + 1 612 870 3000 or visit artsmia.org

Mia