For Immediate Release

Minneapolis Institute of Art Launches New “Art & Wine After Dark” Series

December 14, 2022

MINNEAPOLIS—This winter, the Minneapolis Institute of Art (Mia) is launching a new after-hours art and dining experience called Art & Wine After Dark, featuring a private wine tasting, an expert-led conversation about art and wine, and a walkthrough of one of the museum’s remarkable exhibitions.

The first iteration of Art & Wine After Dark is inspired by the exhibition Revolution à la Mode: Fashion and Music in Revolutionary France. Acclaimed sommelier Bill Summerville and curator Nicole LaBouff will lead a lively discussion of art, wine, fashion, and music during the French Revolution and the tumultuous years leading up to it, while guests enjoy curated wine selections and small bites from Paris Dining Club.

Art & Wine After Dark will take place on select Wednesday evenings from January through March. Tickets are $125 per person, all-inclusive, and the purchase supports the museum’s mission. For more information, click here.

Press Contacts

Minneapolis Institute of Art
Allie Johnson
allie.johnson@artsmia.org
+1 612 870 3171

Minneapolis Institute of Art
Molly Lax
mlax@artsmia.org
+1 612 870 3013

About the Minneapolis Institute of Art

Home to more than 90,000 works of art representing 5,000 years of world history, the Minneapolis Institute of Art (Mia) inspires wonder, spurs creativity, and nourishes the imagination. With extraordinary exhibitions and one of the finest art collections in the country—from all corners of the globe, and from ancient to contemporary—Mia links the past to the present, enables global conversations, and offers an exceptional setting for inspiration.

General admission to Mia is always free. Some special exhibitions have a nominal admission fee.

For more information, call + 1 612 870 3000 or visit artsmia.org.